Our 727th Meeting

February 14, 2020

Message From Our President...

It is that time of the year again to make nominations for our club's board and officers. We have a total of eleven positions (see Page 2) that must be filled and we will have our election in March at our club's anniversary meeting. If you wish to nominate yourself or someone else for one of the spots, please see me during this month's meeting. I encourage you all to become more involved in the Glendale Coin Club!

The first Long Beach Coin Expo of the year will be held this month. It is always great to see so many members of the Glendale Coin Club attending the show, hope to see you there and if you need free passes we have them! There are a couple of amazing displays at the Long Beach show this time, including a $50 million plus exhibit of $10 Gold Eagles and a set of high end small cents that you must see as well.

The new 2020 Silver Eagles are now in and we will be giving away a full roll of 20 Silver Eagles in our monthly raffle! Special thanks to Gordon O'Rourke for helping the club acquire the coins at a great price!

Finally, we will be having Show & Tell, Raffle and an Auction at the meeting so please bring some interesting items to share and to sell!

See you all on Friday,
Mike

Year 2020
Silver Market Update
By: Red Henry

This month's program will be presented by Red Henry, who you all know is an active member of our club and follows all of the latest news about the silver market. Red will be giving us an update on the latest in the silver market and his thoughts about investing in silver in the year 2020. Please come out to the meeting and enjoy this program.

Remember, it is always great when we have programs set up by our regular club members. Please let us know if you have an idea that you would like to present as a program to the club this year so that we can continue to have great presentations at our meetings! Thank you in advance!
